

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Susan Wold has devoted her life to the betterment of her community and church through her service as Faith Lutheran Church's secretary; and,

WHEREAS, Susan has helped make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work through her caring and sharing with family and friends and through her day-to-day giving and loving to her children, gardening, pets, good books, old movies, and trivia; and,

WHEREAS, Susan and her husband, Bob, have three children—William, Richard and Kathleen—and have been blessed with five lovely grandchildren; and,

WHEREAS, After 23 years of service and devotion to Faith Lutheran Church, Susan Wold retired on June 15, 1988; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognize and commemorate the memorable milestones in the lives of the State's outstanding citizens:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 6, 1988, as in South Dakota, and I join with Susan's family and friends in wishing her continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of her contributions and commitment.

ATTEST:

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourth Day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

JOYCE HAZELSTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
